Company Profile:

Providence Packaging was established to meet the specialized needs unique to shippers of delicate, time-sensitive products. Headquartered in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains of North Carolina (just north of metropolitan Charlotte), Providence Packaging manages its distribution from facilities in North Carolina (HQ), Huntley, IL, Stockton, CA and satellite locations throughout the United States.

With over 50 years of combined experience providing packaging design and service solutions, the Providence team seeks out the best packaging products and designs to meet our customers' needs. Working with a diverse inventory of packaging products, our goal is to build measurable value into each packaging model.

Providence Packaging specializes in designing packaging solutions for shippers of time and temperature-sensitive products. Our customers ship a variety of products ranging from vaccines and medications to fresh and frozen foods to live tropical fish and plants. These products must be packaged to protect against the negative effects of temperature (heat and cold), moisture (or lack of), as well as, the customary rigors of the distribution channel.

In addition to insulated packaging solutions, Providence also distributes a diverse inventory of industrial packaging products including corrugated shipping containers, cushioning materials, absorbent pads, tapes, stretch film, paper and plastic packaging.

Providence Packaging recognizes the best packaging solutions only have real value if they are available when needed. Whether you are operating from a single location or dozens of locations nationwide, Providence Packaging will reliably deliver a logistics solution designed to meet your needs. We understand that many companies have limited storage space and would prefer to receive packaging only as needed. Our distribution centers have a diverse inventory of products stocked and available for immediate shipment.

Whether you are shipping life-saving medications or perishable foods, Providence Packaging is committed to providing a reliable temperature-sensitive product packaging and service solution with real value.
